,, head do	0 2 0

2. No person shall cut firewood or burn charcoal in any District jungle or remove the same except under a license granted by the Amildar or District Forest officer or such other official duly authorized on that behalf by the Deputy Commissioner of the District upon payment of the seigniorage duty as above and all persons engaged in such felling or burning shall abide by the terms of the license and by such directions as the Deputy Commissioner may, with the approval of the Inspector General of Forests, lay down as regards the class or classes of trees to be felled and the manner in which they shall be cut and removed.

3. If, within the time specified in the ense, the holder thereof fails to remove firewood or charcoal, the license shall become null and v[oi]d and the licensee shall not have any right to the refund of the fee.

4. The whole quantity covered by licen[se] shall be removed in one lot and at one time.

5. The license holder shall have no rig[ht] to claim firewood or charcoal from a jungle other than the one named in his license on the ground t[hat] he failed to obtain the quantity in that jungle.

6. The maximum number of cart-load[s] to be removed under one license shall be 25 and no license shall be granted in a closed jungle.

7. It shall be competent for the Depu[ty] Commissioner to close any jungle or parts thereof to the public and prohibit therein all cutting of firewood or burning of charcoal.

8. Any person found cutting or burni[ng] in, or removing firewood or charcoal from a closed jungle or removing the same from the jungle[s] allotted in excess of the number of cart-loads covered by the license or any person removing firew[ood] or charcoal under a time-expired license, shall be deemed to have cut and removed such firew[ood] or charcoal without a license.

9. No paid license shall be granted f[or] cutting or burning and removing firewood or charcoal from the jungle tracts set apart for the bonâ [fide] use of the cultivating raiyats.

10. These rules, so far as they presc[ribe] the seigniorage, shall not affect existing privileges of kandayam paying raiyats and of mohatarfa[s] paying iron smelters and iron smiths to get firewood or charcoal free for their bonâ fide private use. Such persons (excepting raiyats whose privileges will be withheld if abuse be committed) sha[ll] be bound to obtain free licenses for cutting firewood and to abide by the terms of such licenses. Firewood or charcoal obtained free shall not be sold, bartered or otherwise used for purposes of trade.

11. The following kinds of trees shal[l] not be felled or burnt for firewood or charcoal :—

Reserved kinds.

Sandal, teak, poon, blackwood, nandi, h[one], jalari, heb-halasu, karachi, bili-matti and kari-matti.

Unreserved kinds.

Hunal, masi, hettiga or arsintega, jamb[ul], bilvara, tadasal, mavu, hunse, kendal, nerle, bagi, bogi, hadaga, bharangi, sampige, nanja, gandi, ha[lasu], kullugariga, gandagariga, vate, alalekayi, cinnamon, kachu, geru, gamboji, banni, kullubage, bevu[ru] nayibela and kaggli.

12. All firewood or charcoal felled or burnt on private or inam lands and removed for sale or otherwise shall be covered by a free lice[nse] to be obtained from the Amildar or District Forest officer or such other official duly authoriz[ed] on that behalf by the Deputy Commissioner of the District and when so covered, the same sh[all] be exempted from seigniorage above prescribed.

13. When firewood or charcoal is not covered by a license, the same shall be subject to the seigniorage duty on the carts entering their [de]stination and shall be collected by the Taluk or such other agency as the Deputy Commissioner m[ay] appoint.

The [7th February 1889.]

The 8th February 1889.

No. 204.—It is hereby notified for public information that the undermentioned jodi village which has been duly attached in satisfaction of the arrears of revenue due to Government (as shown in the subjoined statement) by the said jodidars, will be sold by public auction at the place and on the date mentioned in the annexed statement. The sale will commence at 11 A. M. on the date specified, and the village will be knocked down to the highest bidder without reserve.

2. Provided that when a village is divided into separate recognized vrittis, the Deputy Commissioner may, at his option instead of selling the village as a whole, sell each vritti separately.

3. The purchaser will be required to deposit 25 per cent of the purchase money at the time of sale, and where the remainder of the purchase money may not be paid within fifteen days from the day of sale, the money so deposited shall be liable to forfeiture.

4. When such deposit shall not be made nor the remaining purchase money paid up, the lands shall be resold at the expense and risk of the first purchaser.

5. Persons bidding at the sale may be required to state whether they bid on their own account or as agents, and in the latter case to deposit a written authority signed by their principals, otherwise their bids may be rejected.

6. The sale shall be stayed, if the defaulter or any other person acting on his behalf or claiming an interest in the land tenders the full amount of the arrears of revenue with the interest and other charges, before the property is knocked down, or gives satisfactory proof that the amount of arrears, &c., have been paid up.

7. The sale of the property will not become absolute until the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan.

8. Purchasers having completed the payment of the purchase money will, as soon as the sale has been confirmed by the Dewan, be placed in immediate possession, and the village will be registered in the name of the purchaser, and a certificate of sale signed and sealed by the Deputy Commissioner will be granted to him. It is to be distinctly understood that the Government are not responsible for errors of description and in estimated extent.

9. Provided parties deeming themselves aggrieved by the sale shall be at liberty to appeal to the Dewan within 30 days from the day of sale, and the purchase shall be conditional on the final order in such appeal.
